THOUSANDS OF MEN GO OUT ON THE NATIONAL STRIKE.

Machinists All Over the Country Quit Work.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The general strike of the employees in the machinery and allied trades throughout the country to observe a nine-hour day with an increase in wages to meet the reduction in the hours of labor took effect today.

NATIONAL PRESIDENT. Reports were received by the National Association of Machinists and others officials who are in the city, early in the forenoon indicating that a large number of establishments heretofore holding out against the demands of the men were making the necessary concessions. Mr. O'Connell said this morning that it was too early to make any estimate of the number of men out. His original figure was 15,000 men. Directly affected and several hundred thousand indirectly. This figure has been largely reduced by the number of agreements reached in the last two or three days. Mr. O'Connell, while refusing to make any estimates or draw any conclusions until later in the day, said the reports so far received were of an encouraging nature.

IN NEW ENGLAND. In New England the first reports show that many men are out, but the number in the aggregate cannot be estimated yet. All the machinists in the towns of Andover and Derby, Conn., are out. The men in the principal towns in Vermont have also struck.

AT CINCINNATI. At Cincinnati the indications are that all the men are out. This is one of the points where the most difficulty in settlement has been apprehended. In Cleveland the situation has improved. The Automobile Repairer Company, the Grant Tool Company, the Danforth Tool Company and Redwood & Kelly have agreed with the men and work in these establishments continues.

AT WILMINGTON. In Wilmington, Del., several of the concerns are reported as having agreed to terms this morning. The report from Denver shows that no trouble is expected there. The allusions from Chicago indicate that arrangements have been made with a great majority of the firms under which the agreement is signed and will be entered.

MACHINISTS IN A BIG PARADE.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. CINCINNATI, O., May 20.—Machinists' processions were formed at 7 a. m. and marched to the large manufacturing plants and shops in the city. The response was quite general, even among employers not members of the Machinists' Association, who had given no indication that they were in sympathy with the strike. A great number of the large manufacturing plants in the city were even where no increase in wages has been arranged for.

STRIKE AT THE LOCAL WORKS.

Machinists at the Judson and Oakland Leave Their Work.

Because the managers of the Oakland Iron Works refused to accede to their demands, thirty-five workmen walked out at 9 o'clock this morning. The machinists walked out first and they were soon followed by the pattern makers. The moulders are still at work. The machinists have been receiving $2, $2.25 and $2.50 a day, and the pattern makers $2.25 and $2.50 a day. They struck for 9-hour days with an increase of 12 1/2 per cent salary, as well as the regulation of the number of apprentices. Had the company complied the men would have received practically ten hours pay for nine hours work. In speaking of the matter today Superintendent Booth stated that the conditions were such that the company had to refuse the requests. "We could not pay the amount of wages the men asked," said he, "and it now rests entirely with the men. In the East the wages are 25 and 30 cents an hour, whereas our schedule is 22 1/2 and 25 cents, and we could not raise the salaries and still compete with the Eastern firms. Had we complied with the request the Eastern firms could have made and shipped goods here at less than it

SIX THOUSAND OUT ACROSS THE BAY.

Employees of Union Iron Works Join Strikers.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. CHICAGO, May 20.—The order sent out by the National Association of Machinists for a general strike today in all machine shops in the United States that had not agreed to the demand for a nine-hour day and an increase in wages of 12 1/2 per cent did not become operative in Chicago except in two of the plants in which power (about 100) men are employed before presenting the machinists and the Chicago Machinery Manufacturers' Association will be held for the purpose of discussing proposed arbitration as to wages. Some of the smaller concerns outside the National Metal Traders Association are showing a disposition not to yield, but the large manufacturers apparently will help reach a speedy agreement, said Business Agent Koderick of the Machinists.

FIVE THOUSAND ON A STRIKE.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. SEATTLE, Wash., May 20.—A large machine shop in Seattle is idle today, owing to the strike for a day and a half, and an increase of 11 per cent in wages. Altogether 5,000 men quit work in these shops. The Lackawanna Machinists and the Shipmen out for a week past, making nearly 5,000 men on strike in Seattle. The Dickson works this morning posted a notice agreeing to give nine hours a day and arbitrate the wage issue. The men ignored the notice in obedience to international instructions.

ST. LOUIS DOES NOT FEEL STRIKE.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. ST. LOUIS, Mo., May 20.—With the exception of a few shops, the men in the city who are supposed to go to work today, where the demand for shorter hours and more pay was not at once complied with, there is no sign of a general strike among the men of the city of St. Louis. Secretary J. J. O'Connell of the Metal Trades Union said the machinists' help, stand the men under consideration by their employers, and he thought a settlement would be effected before night. "The machinists' agreement, providing for nine hours a day and 10 per cent more pay, is the only one signed so far," said Secretary O'Connell. "The machinists' case was a test, however, and the other iron works trades allied with them expect to secure at least an advance of 10 per cent. Some have assurances to that effect from their employers. Conferences, being held today between representatives of both sides, and our reports are very favorable."

AT PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, May 20.—It is estimated that not more than 1,000 machinists have quit work in this city. Neither the Baldwin Locomotive Works nor the Cramps anticipate any trouble. They do not knowingly employ union men.

HARTFORD.

HARTFORD, Conn., May 20.—A canvass of the iron works here today shows 1,350 men on strike, 250 locked out and 400 working.

NEW HAVEN.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., May 20.—One hundred machinists struck here today.

MILWAUKEE.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., May 20.—About 1,600 machinists went on strike today and were joined by several hundred helpers.

YORK.

YORK, Pa., May 20.—Two hundred men in the employ of the York Manufacturing Company and S. Morgan Smith quit work today.

BEST NIGHT SINCE HER ILLNESS.

Mrs. M'Kinley on the Mend—Chinese Send a Present.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—At 9:30 this morning Secretary Cortelyou gave out the following: "Mrs. McKinley's physicians report that she has had the best night since her illness and that her progress is very satisfactory." The night at the Scott mansion was a very quiet one. The President retired about 11:30 and slept all night without being disturbed. This morning at 8 o'clock Mrs. Gibbons, Hirschfelder and O'Leary called and remained about an hour in consultation with Dr. Rixey. They left the house apparently well satisfied with Mrs. McKinley's condition.

Call on the President.

The President had some early callers this morning. A deputation of clergymen comprising Rev. Drs. Pond, Gardner, Bennett and Hammond, the latter superintendent of the Methodist Chinese mission, in company with four Chinese ministers, called on the President. The Chinese presented to Mr. McKinley a beautiful banner, together with a memorial, thanking him for his efforts in aiding the Chinese during the recent trouble in China. The banner bore the inscription: "The Chinese people, presented to William McKinley, August president of Great America, by the Chinese members of the Church of Jesus Christ in San Francisco, as a token of their honor and praise." The President accepted the banner and thanked the delegation, which then retired.

Plans Not Made.

Secretary Cortelyou stated that the President had made no arrangements for today, but would decide later as to his program. It is very probable that he will inspect the returned soldiers from the Philippines either today or tomorrow.

SITUATION IS VERY SERIOUS.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—Locally the strike situation is serious, not that any trouble is expected, but from the number of men involved in it. Both sides are very firm. This morning all of the men reported at their respective shops for work and the committees were asked to make inquiries of employers concerning what decision had been reached regarding the new scale. In most cases the committees were told that the demands of the men were refused.

Union Iron Works employees to the number of 2,200 walked out and the shops were completely tied up.

The following large shops were also closed: Henry Machine Works, Hercules, Byron Jackson, C. H. Evans, Cooke Manufacturing Company, the San Francisco Tool Company, the Fulton Engineering and Shipbuilding Company, and the Compressed Air Machinery Company. It is estimated that between 6,000 and 7,000 men have struck.

President W. H. Taylor of the Hudson Iron Works made the following statement today:

"It is too early in the difficulty to say what we shall do. All our men are out except the moulders. I cannot say whether or not we shall close the works. We shall be guided entirely by circumstances as they arise."

MRS. M'KINLEY WILL GO TO CANTON.

NEW YORK, May 20.—There is no longer any doubt of the fact that Mrs. McKinley is on the road to speedy recovery. The news from the Scott residence today is of a most reassuring nature. The convalescence of the patient, over whose condition the public has been in a continued state of suspense and anxiety for a week past is now progressing very satisfactorily. The slight increase in the fever of the patient which gave cause for renewed anxiety last Saturday night quickly subsided. Yesterday she was able to sit up part of the time, and she partook freely of light nourishment, assimilating the food in a manner which indicated a return to normal healthy conditions. The improvement in the condition of Mrs. McKinley continued throughout the day.

LAUREL GROVE FAMILY AMONG THE MISSING.

The people of Laurel Grove, north of Fruitvale, have a mystery on hand. Last evening the Knott cottage was burned to the ground. Dick Harmon and George Marshall saw the flames and went to the scene. No one was in sight. This morning they went to the scene of the fire again and looked over the ashes but could not find any bodies. The Knott family is missing.

PRESIDENT WILL TALK TO TROOPS.

Promises to Go to the Presidio and See Soldiers.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—The President has promised to talk to the Forty-fifth and Forty-sixth Infantry, U. S. V., who have just returned from the Philippines, and are now in camp at the Model Camp at the Presidio. The day has not yet been set, but the President has promised that he will not only General Shafter the night before, but he intends to make the promised speech. He will go out to the Presidio and the troops will assemble in camp before him.

SHAMROCK II. WINS THE RACE.

Associated Press Dispatches by The Tribune's Special Leased Wire. RYDE, Isle of Wight, May 20.—The two Shamrocks started this morning for a race over an open sea course, the first leg of which is a beat from Calshot castle to a mark outside the Nab light ship. The wind was steady from the east and was blowing a club topsail breeze. The Shamrock II won by about a minute.

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, May 20.—Three more victims of the accident yesterday evening at the Ohio plant of the steel company died of their injuries during the night.

PAN-AMERICAN EXPOSITION OPEN.

Roosevelt Makes an Address Before a Large Audience.

RUFFALO, May 20.—The Pan-American Exposition was formally opened today in the presence of a vast assemblage. Great interest was taken in the proceedings. Vice-President Roosevelt spoke in part as follows: "Today we formally open this great exposition, by the shores of the mighty inland seas of the north, where all the peoples of the western hemisphere have come to show that they have done in art, science and industrial invention, what they have been able to accomplish with their manifold individual and national qualities. Such an exposition, held at the opening of this new century, inevitably suggests two trains of thought. It should make us think seriously and solemnly of our several duties to one another as citizens of the different nations of this western hemisphere; and also of our duties each to the nation to which he personally belongs. "The century upon which we have just entered must inevitably be one of tremendous triumph or of tremendous failure for the whole human race; because, to an infinitely greater extent than in any previous century, the destinies of the world lie not in the hands of a few nations, but in the hands of the people of all nations."

M'Kinley Sends Telegram to Director-General.

There are certain things so obvious as to seem commonplace, which nevertheless must be kept constantly before us if we are to preserve our just sense of proportion. (Continued on Page 2.)

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—As fast as the walk-outs were ordered this morning they were reported to Secretary R. J. Wicker of the Machinists' Union, but he was very reticent when asked for details.

"Between 5,000 and 7,000 men quit work this morning," said Mr. Wicker, "and it will be impossible to get the exact number before tomorrow. "There is a total of 110 machine shops in San Francisco, Oakland and Alameda, and all but eight of them have declined to sign the agreement submitted by the men. Three of them signed about ten days ago and five others are asked to our demands last Saturday. I am not at liberty to disclose the names of these establishments. DEATH SUMMONS THOS. F. GARRITY

Was Prominent in Political and Legal Circles.

Thomas F. Garrity, the well known young attorney of this city, is dead. He passed away shortly after 6 o'clock last night at the Mission Sanitarium on Market street, near Eleventh street, after an aggravated illness of several months. Death did not come as a surprise to Mr. Garrity's friends, who know that he had been stricken with a fatal malady.

At the time of his death Mr. Garrity was surrounded by his wife and children and several other members of his family. The deceased was born in Contra Costa county, 28 years ago. He was a graduate of St. Mary's College of San Francisco and a member of a class which contained a number of young men who have since risen to distinction in several of the learned professions, among them being Garret McInerney, Charles Hegerberg, Jack Doolan, Frank D. Ryan.

He studied law at first with the firm of Manning, Milner & Company in San Francisco and afterwards with a prominent lawyer in the local business with Edward Rogers of this city, who died several years ago. Since Rogers' death Mr. Garrity has been associated in the law business with William Donovan.

In the practice of his profession Mr. Garrity was most successful. He was the younger practitioner at the Alcazar county bar. His popularity was on the same plane with his success as a practitioner, and early led him into the field of politics. He became a candidate on the Democratic ticket in successful campaigns for the positions of District Attorney, Superior Judge and City Attorney respectively. In none of these campaigns he ran as high as 5000 votes ahead of his ticket, and in no contest was he defeated by more than a few hundred votes, and that even when struck men were running against him.

Mr. Garrity leaves a widow and two children living at 50 Isabella street, a brother, Peter Garrity, living in this city, another brother, James Garrity, and his aged mother at Pinole, Contra Costa county.

The funeral will take place tomorrow morning. The remains will be taken from McInerney's undertaking rooms at 549 Oakland street to St. Francis de Sales church, where a solemn requiem high mass will be said. The remains will be interred in St. Mary's cemetery.

DEMANDS MONEY FOR HER BELGIAN HARES.

Last June Mrs. L. E. Hopkinson of this city, who owns a number of pedigreed Belgian hares, had eight of her most valuable ones killed by Captain Edwin F. Brown's Newfoundland dog. Since that time Mrs. Hopkinson has been trying to collect $500 from the captain, which amount she claims the hares were worth. The case has been delayed, until it is doubtful that any experts will testify as to the value of the dead hares.

Captain Brown says he cannot see how eight Belgian hares can be worth $500. The lady has brought suit to recover the amount.

CONFIRMATION AT ST. FRANCIS.

Many Children Confirmed By the Archbishop.

The services at St. Francis de Sales Church yesterday were most interesting when 150 children were confirmed by Archbishop Riordan. The children made a very pretty appearance.

When the Archbishop and his attendant priests had taken their places (the children sang "Come, Holy Spirit") During the rite of confirmation the organ was played by Miss Lizzie McNally, and Miss Camille Frank, the soprano sang the "Veni Creator," by Lacharme, as a solo. After the class had been confirmed the Archbishop spoke briefly.

After the sermon the children sang "O Salutaris Hostia" and "Tantum Ergo."

NO LOTTERY ABOUT BUYING HOME SITES.

There is need for hundreds of new homes in this city, and a number of attractive sites on which to build them will be offered by W. J. Dunne on Saturday, May 25th, which are all worthy the attention of persons interested in the welfare of Oakland. This is not an ordinary sale. On that occasion some very valuable business property located in the center of Oakland and a great number of home sites located along Telegraph avenue and in the best districts of Piedmont will become the property of the lowest bidder. This sale is being forced by the action of the heirs of the Huntington estate, who with a speedy distribution and are willing to make big sacrifices in order to have their desires gratified.

This has led the executors to order that the property be immediately sold and they have entrusted the task to Mr. W. J. Dunne, whose known success in conducting auction sales in the past is a guarantee that any buyer may invest or speculate on this auction. Mr. Dunne has prepared a very comprehensive circular setting forth in detail the location of all these sites, which can be found in nearly all of the street cars but which can be obtained by application at his office, 20 Broadway.

This is the first time in its history that an annual convention will be held on this side of the bay.

U. C. ATHLETES MAKE A FINE SHOWING.

President Wheeler has received the following letter from President Frank P. Graves of the University of Washington:

"Your boys have arrived, seen and conquered, but, strange to say, they depart with the best wishes of the vanquished. They are as gentlemanly and generous a set of young men as I have ever seen. After the overwhelming defeat that they administered they could afford to be generous, but we believe that their courtesy is instinctive."

DR. McLEAN PREACHES AT MILLS COLLEGE.

The Rev. Dr. McLean of this city delivered the baccalaureate sermon at Mills College yesterday. There was a large attendance.

The text was from the thirty-seventh Psalm, thirty-first verse: "The law of his God is in his heart; none of his steps shall slide." He said in part: "My subject may be called the supreme personal equipment, which I take to be religious principle, in contrast with mere religious sentiment or even religious conviction. Religious sentiment is apt to be a thing of the lips only; religious conviction is a thing of the mind. Religious principle holds in vital control the man's whole being. Religious sentiment is the law of God upon one's tongue; religious conviction is the law of God in one's head. Religious principle is the law of God made vitally present over his whole being."

"Religious sentiments are good, but insufficient. They are like cut flowers, they beautify and adorn, but are no part of the structure. They decorate, like potted plants, but they do not constitute the reality."

"Convictions go deeper. They constitute the rock principle in human nature; they are more solid and less fragile than mere sentiment. They constitute largely the holding power in character. But convictions, like rocks, are not imperishable. They may be rent by great convulsions, melted under excessive heat of passion, suffer erosion under pressure or disintegrate through exposure to the elements."

"Religious principle, in contrast with both these, is possessed of vitality. It is a self-renewing, self-propagating power. It draws up into itself all the great forces and processes of life and so it is imperishable."

Can't you remember the days when all watches were made in small shops, mostly by hand, and a good one cost $200 or more? Then came the large Elgin and Waltham companies, who, by system, division and arrangement of labor and machinery, make a good watch for less than half the old way.

You can still pay the $200, if you want to, but where is the advantage?

This is true, too, of Carriages. You can give the small builder, in the old-fashioned shop, double the amount of money that is necessary to get what you want, and, of course, he can use it. On the other hand it has been made possible by large factories to build modern vehicles of all kinds at less than half the cost of the old way, and the vehicles are better, not only in style, but in workmanship and finish. Why furnish the small, out-of-date shop $200 to build a vehicle which can be built for $100 in a modern up-to-date, well-directed Carriage Factory?

QUO VADIS AT DEWEY TONIGHT.

This week there is to be a revival on a very elaborate scale of that remarkable play "Quo Vadis" at the Dewey Theater. When this piece was first produced by Manager Stevens a few months ago it was regarded by conservative theatrical men as the bay as a very bold move to make, but the success was so marked as to far more than justify the venture. "Quo Vadis" was so splendidly staged and so forcefully acted that it held the big house nightly for two weeks and was patronized by all who saw it to be the finest production ever presented at the theater.

Some time afterward, when the piece was put on at a San Francisco theater, Manager Stevens was requested, on account of his big Oakland success, to direct the piece across the bay. This he did, and it is with the experience and finesse both productions that he has expected to repeat the success this week. Everybody knows the great story of "Quo Vadis" and everybody has been thrilled by the wonderful narrative. To see it presented so effectively, and with human beings portraying its passions, is indeed a great treat, and doubtless it will be enjoyed by full houses all this week.

AN IMPORTANT EVENT IN OAKLAND.

Almost at the same time that the battleship Ohio was being launched with such impressive ceremonies in San Francisco there sailed from the ways of an Oakland shipyard the largest vessel ever built in Oakland harbor. Unlike the Ohio, her mission will not be war and destruction, but peace and commerce. She was not built out of the proceeds of public taxation, but her cost is a private investment to promote trade expansion.

The launching of the Lathina is of far more importance to Oakland than the launching of the Ohio. It is evidence of the growth of our shipbuilding industry and the enterprise of our shipbuilders. Mr. A. Doyle & Son, the builders of the Lathina, opened their yard less than a year ago. To launch an ocean going merchant ship in less than twelve months after opening the yard is no small thing in itself, but when it appears that the ship is the largest ever built in this harbor the feat becomes a positive triumph. There are other busy and enterprising shipyards here, and they are all doing much to develop the local shipbuilding industry. What has been done by Messrs. Doyle & Son is simply an evidence of the capabilities of our shipbuilders.

Long iron and steel ships will be launched from the shores of Oakland harbor, but the building of iron and steel ships cannot be made successful here till there is a deeper channel way into the harbor. It requires a large and costly plant to build iron and steel ships and such a plant cannot be operated successfully unless it can turn out the largest vessels for the deep sea trade. Give us a twenty-five-foot channel at low water and it will not be long before Oakland will be competing with the Union Iron Works, Newport News and Chester. Thus we see how bound up the growth and expansion of our shipbuilding industry is with deep water. These two words mean everything to our city.

We can build large ships here now but we must be able to build the largest. Give us the Doyle & Son a chance to get to the deep sea and they will build ships that will make the name of Oakland famous. Incidentally they will build up the city on industrial and commercial foundations that insure permanent prosperity.

LETTING OPPORTUNITIES PASS.

At first blush the appearance of foreign capital in American fields of industry seemed to observers to be a good thing. Syndicates of aliens paid large sums of money to citizens of this country, and that money, of course, was circulated in the United States. There is another side to the matter, however, which should receive consideration.

Passing over the English holdings of hundreds of thousands of acres in Texas and the South, the great syndicates that control the copper output of Montana and Michigan and the quicksilver mines of this country, thousands of square miles of timber land and many of the most productive gold and silver claims, let us consider the latest combination of foreign wealth that seeks investment in the United States. A Glasgow syndicate has banded for $2,500,000 the South Hiscope Copper Mining Company's forty-seven patented claims in Arizona, some of which have been developed to a considerable extent. Let us suppose the final payments to be made and the $2,500,000 distributed among the sellers. They are happy and bank their cash. Then the Scotch company takes charge and from that moment every cent of profit goes out of this country for all time. In the end America thus becomes the loser.

This policy of encouraging foreign investments is, in other words, shortsighted in the extreme.

What ought to be done for our capitalists and financiers to look at home instead of abroad for investment. The money God has been famed for his shrewdness in money matters for many centuries, and if he can see profit in spending $2,500,000 on Arizona copper mines, it is a certainty that our own bankers have let a good thing go by. They have lost a great opportunity by their lack of faith in their fellow-countrymen and in American enterprises. Our native owners who seek capital to develop their properties meet with great discouragement, it is too true, when they seek to enlist the interest of American financiers, but there ought to be a way of educating the men who possess money up to an understanding of the fact that in neglecting the local field for investment they are doing themselves an injury as well as their country.

The financial success of foreign syndicates now engaged in promoting American industries is an object lesson for the capitalists of this country to consider.

An interesting feature of President McKinley's western trip is the proof of his thorough democracy of heart, a trait that stamps him as a true American. Instead of the imperial glamor with which Bryan endeavored to surround him, he is one of the people in every sense of the expression, the mantle of Abraham Lincoln having apparently fallen upon him in this regard. Sweeping as his victory was last November, it is safe to say that if he had to undergo the test at the polls again this year, he would break all his own records and get the largest popular vote ever cast for a President of the United States.

Agutinaldo has been offered a large salary to star in an American dime museum circuit. If he is going in for public exhibitions at all it looks as if athletic games are more in his line, for he has proved himself to be the champion sprinter on earth.

SENATOR GEO. C. PERKINS TELLS OF OUR STATE.

His Personal Views on the Nicaragua Canal—Well Posted on Many Subjects.

On the way south between San Jose and Los Angeles I had the exceeding good fortune to fall in with United States Senator George C. Perkins and to have several hours unintermitted talk with him. No man could be more approachable or more interested in the discussion of California affairs. There is no barrier of stiff-necked officialism about Mr. Perkins, no expression of self-esteem or affectation of personal exclusiveness; and what I even more admired, no untidiness about political efforts possible to follow from speaking his mind with absolute unreserve. Mr. Perkins is above all a practical man and he makes no pretenses of political or other sort of scholarship. Theorizing is not his habit of mind, as I very soon discovered, and from first to last our talk, which was long and wholly uncontrained, ran to practical things. I was surprised with his intimate, and even minute knowledge of the country through which we were passing. He seemed to know everything about it from its early history down to the statistics of last season's crops and to have personally observed every stage in its progress during the past forty years.

DISTRICTS IN THE STATE.

California, in Mr. Perkins' opinion, is only at the beginning of greater things in a material way. What has been accomplished in this has gone little farther than to demonstrate the productive power of the country and to give guidance along the lines of industry which may most profitably be prosecuted in the different sections of the country. He calls my attention to the special advantages of the different districts through which we are now passing, pointing out that there was a distinct similarity for various, here one, for instance, and so on. A great deal of time, he said, and vast sums of money have necessarily been expended in finding out the best productive values of local districts all over the State. Take, for instance, the Santa Cruz country, near the ocean, where some years back there was a large planting of pine trees, are now being dug up and apple trees put in their places. In other districts, he said, you will find similar or analogous changes. Our people are learning not only what to do, but where to do it to the best advantage, the general result being that the energies of each special form of production are being massed in special localities.

THE RAISIN CENTER.

It is no accident, he said, that the main center is at Fresno, that the prune center is at San Jose, and the walnut center is in the South. The people who put their capital and knowledge into these industries have learned where they may be best carried on, and he thinks there is growing to be a speculation all along the lines of our industrial life which cannot fail to promote the very highest and best uses of every section of the State. We have a very great advantage over the States of the East in the local variations and adaptations of our local climate and our local soils. This very advantage has made slow work in the beginning, but it is going to be a thing of incalculable value in relation to our future.

GREAT THINGS TO COME.

Senator Perkins believes that great things are to come to California, and to the Pacific in general, from the opening up of the new commercial field of the Pacific Ocean. There is bound, he believes, to grow up in the countries beyond the Pacific a large demand for our products, just as there has grown up a large demand in the Hawaiian Islands, and as there is rapidly developing a similar demand in the Pacific Central American States. He thinks, too, that Asia, with her ever increasing population and her great needs, will be a great market for our goods and services, and that there shall have grown up here, as he believes there must be there, upon the basis of our oil discoveries, a large manufacturing industry, we shall find our market largely in the Pacific Ocean. And in this connection the Senator spoke his reflections with the frankness of a man of conviction about a matter which one would expect a man in political life to be diplomatically reserved. I am not, he said, one of those who have much faith in the practical utility of the Nicaragua Canal as related to the interests of California. I have supported the canal project in the Senate and expect to continue to support it, because the people whose representative I am are almost unanimously in favor of it. This is my opinion, but in taking an active interest in an enterprise which my judgment does not wholly approve, there are, he went on, two sides to this question. We shall unquestionably be able to ship many of our products to the Eastern States and to Europe, and to receive much merchandise at cheaper rates than the railroads can or do carry them. So far, good, for there will be a distinct economic gain in our use of the canal; but if we can save money by using the canal others may be able to do the same thing.

AS TO THE CANAL.

Going further, the Senator declared that he saw no reason why the people of Central America, of the Hawaiian Islands, and of the Pacific Ocean countries in general, should not be using the canal out of our California and deal direct with the great markets of the East and of Europe. My fear is, he said, that in gaining the Nicaragua Canal we shall lose in a great measure the commerce of the Pacific Ocean, which now comes to San Francisco, because that is the nearest available American port. Just look at the map, he added, and see if you can discover any reason why the Hawaiian Islands should deal with San Francisco, once the barrier between the two oceans is removed. I believe the first effect of the canal will be a disadvantage to us, but I am by no means convinced that its ultimate effect will not be to throw us back upon ourselves as a local community and to separate us from the high hopes which we have formed in connection with the rising world of the Pacific Ocean. I know, said the Senator, that these opinions, if not novel, are at least not generally approved, but I am a man of experience in the shipping world; I think I know something about the business of transportation, especially in ships; and I fear that the day of San Francisco's supremacy in the Pacific will end when ships and goods from Pacific countries through the isthmian channel to the markets of the Atlantic coast and of Europe—A. H. in San Jose Mercury.

WIT AND WISDOM.

"Heaven! what is the matter with grandmother? I never saw her look so outlandish." She is all right, physically; but at the reception she heard a friend say that she looked perfectly subtle and she is trying to look saintly again and making a botch of it."

Peter Cooper was in succession a hatter, a coach builder, a machinist, a machine maker, a grocer, an iron worker and a gun manufacturer, and he was successful in every occupation.

"Oh, never mind him. He's just a 'sap,' that's all he is. He spoke the chorus girl in a tone of contempt. 'A 'sap'! What on earth is a 'sap'?' 'Well, a 'sap' is the thing that a few years ago was known as 'phony'."

Commenting on the British census an English periodical remarks: "It is in the matter of age that a slight element of fiction appears now and then in schedules; for a careful study of the reports reveals that there are more of the fair sex about the age of 25 than can be accounted for."

The British are busy trying to find excuses for Lipton's new challenge, but their explanations only tend to confirm the impression conveyed at the time of the racing trial, that she is outclassed by Shamrock I. That being so, it will only be a waste of time and money to bring her over here, though Lipton can't get hurt on that score, for this yacht-racing proposition is the biggest ad. his money ever got, and he is playing it for all it is worth.

BODY FOUND IN HARBOR.

Nothing Secured By Which Remains Can Be Identified.

ALAMEDA, May 20.—At an early hour this morning the body of an unknown man was found lodged against a pile under the Webster street bridge. The body was discovered by George White, who tied it to a cross-pole under the bridge and informed Deputy Coroner Fowler, who at once took the body to the morgue. Deputy Coroner Fowler says from all appearances the body has been in the water about twenty-four or forty-eight hours and is that of a young man about 25 years of age. When found the body had on a gray checked coat, brown vest, blue overalls, white shirt, brown necktie, black lace shoes, size 6 or 7 and black socks. In the pockets of the clothes was found a knife with a tortoise shell handle and three blades, one of which was broken, a silver root pipe with amber mouth-piece, and a small brass case, which was in imitation of a bottle.

WORK ON THE TOWN WELL.

Pleasanton Contractors
Have a Hard Time.

PLEASANTON, May 20.—Work has been commenced on the concrete around the artesian well, after several discouraging failures in the efforts of the contractors to make the casing of the well tight. The last work attempted by William Baker & Co. was the placing of the concrete around the outside of the casing of the well and enclosing it in a sheet of iron casing. This did not hold the water, and the reason was apparent when the outer casing was removed, it was discovered that the concrete had crumbled away in places, leaving large holes.
